Join The Barrett Art Center for an evening of art and conversation with

Painter

SETH NADEL

Market Street Poughkeepsie

*"I am interested in capturing the feeling of light at a particular time
of day"*

Classically trained at the Cooper Union School of Art, Seth Nadel moved to the Hudson Valley to concentrate on painting his love of nature. Seth's talents and gregarious personality have created a following of devoted collectors and students. He has exhibited in group and solo exhibitions nationally, is locally represented by the Arlington Art Gallery and his award winning commissions can be seen in many buildings around the city of Poughkeepsie. Seth has received numerous awards and has been named a member of "The New Hudson River School".
